

Privacy Policy

Personal Information

We do not collect personal information about you when you visit this site. Personal information is only collected when you engage our services or using our contact us page. When we receive your name and email, your details become accessible by staff and your email address and contact details will be recorded.

We will collect and store your information in order to provide you with a highly personalized service and we will NOT use that personal data for purposes beyond those deemed necessary to evaluate your eligibility for immigration and requirements for settlement and for follow up correspondence.

General Information Disclosure

We do not and will never disclose your personal information that you provide, such as your name, address, e-mail address, telephone, number, etc, to any outside parties without your permission, unless it is necessary for us to do so in order to carry out our service to you or otherwise as required by law.

We will NOT re-sell, distribute or share your personal data with third parties.

Transactions

Information requested on our transactions page is used for billing purposes only.

Cookies

Cookies are pieces of information or small files that a website can send to your computer's hard drive for record keeping. Cookies store information about your preferences on a particular website and can remain on your computer once you have exited from that website. We do not use cookies nor do we have plans to implement such technology in the future.

Links

This web site contains links to other sites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the accuracy or the privacy practices of such sites. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected on this web site.